

Ashtons Legal workforce diversity data 2019

In June 2019, all staff and partners at Ashtons were asked to complete a confidential survey relating to Equality and Diversity issues. This is part of Ashtons commitment to the Law Society's 'Diversity and Inclusion Charter' and to ensure our compliance with the SRA Code. This information will also be used to help inform our Diversity and Inclusion Committee. Please note that the statistics below are based only upon the responses received to our survey, so are not necessarily fully reflective of the actual diversity of Ashtons.

What gender do you identify with?

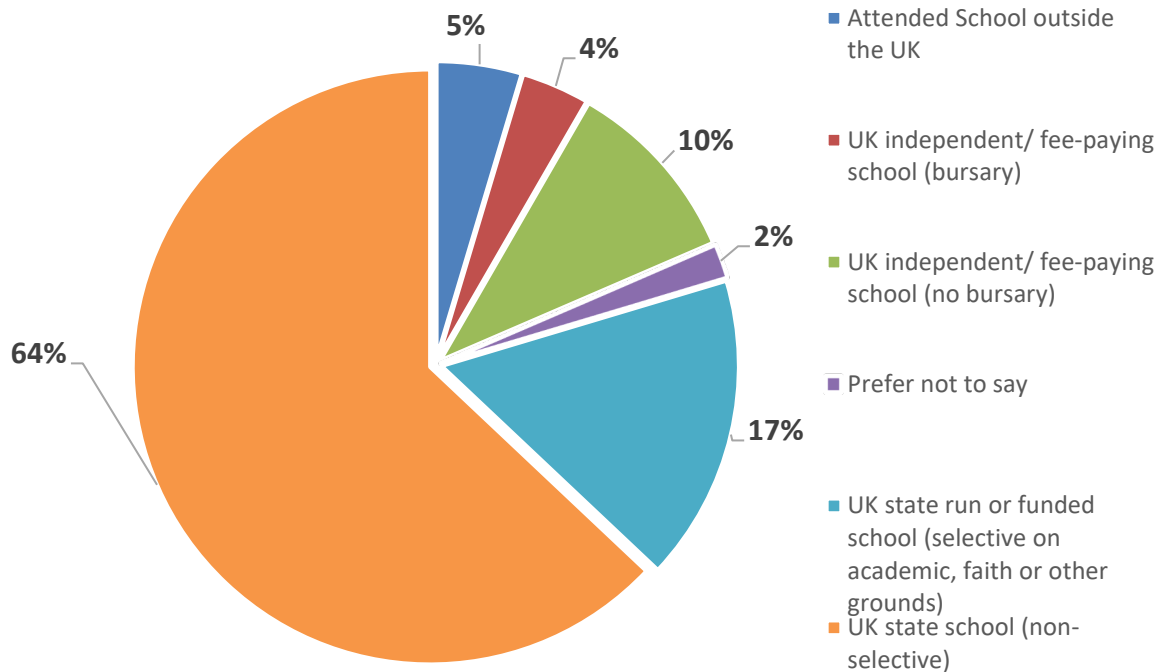

Do you consider yourself to have a disability according to the definition in the Equality Act 2010?

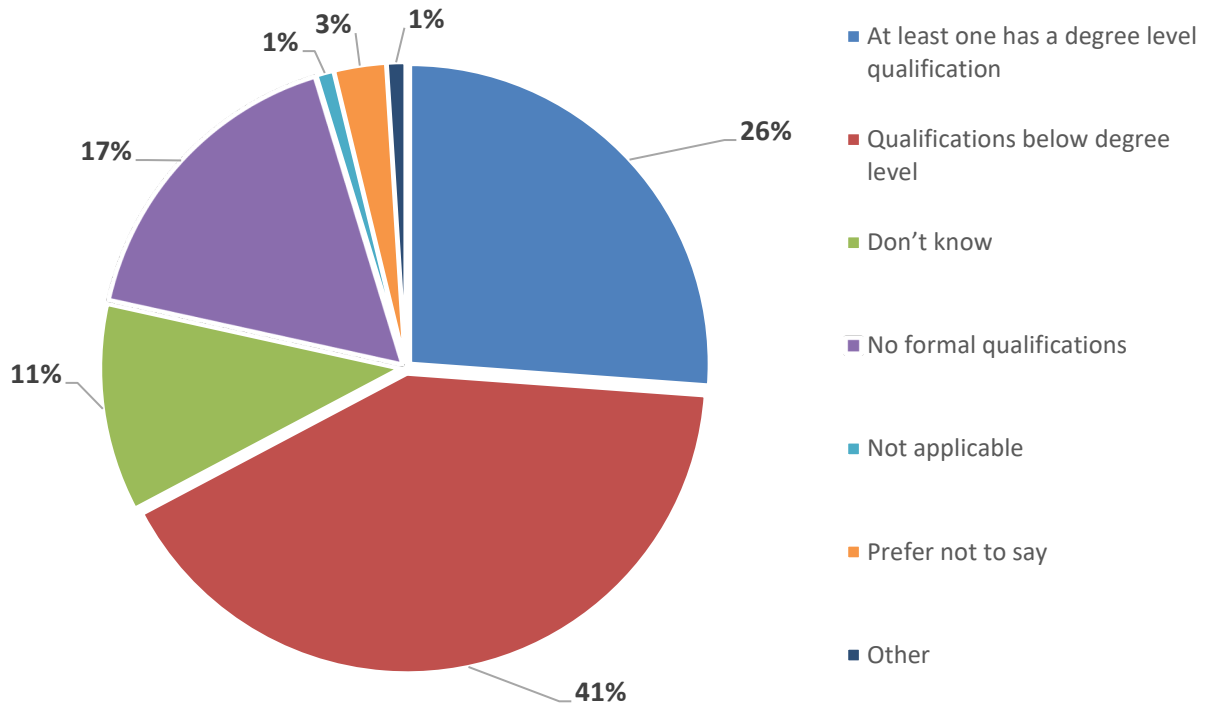

Are your day to day activities limited because of a health problem or disability which has lasted, or is expected to last, at least 12 months?

What type of school did you mainly attend between the ages of 11 and 16?

What is the highest level of qualification achieved by either of your parent(s) or guardian(s) by the time you were 18?

Are you a primary carer for a child or children under 18?

Do you look after or care for someone with a long term physical or mental ill health caused by disability or age (not in a paid capacity)?

Thinking back to when you were about 14, which best describes the sort of work the main/highest income earner in your household did in their main job?
